The Bankrupt Act.

We have been requested to publish the Bankrupt Law. This is impossible. It makes a respectable volume. In order, however, that our readers may understand it, and may therefore not be liable to be imposed upon by parties, who are indifferent to the interests of others, we have taken some pains to compile from several sources the following general principles of the Act, for the benefit of all who contemplate seeking its benefits. But first of all, we advise our friends not to determine hastily what they will do, until they have had the counsel of a respectable and intelligent Attorney, upon whom they can rely.

1. The manifest design of the Bankrupt Law is to benefit honest, but unfortunate, debtors, whose just liabilities are greater than they can pay.

2. To become a voluntary bankrupt under this Act, the debtor must owe at least $300, which, of course, he is not able to pay in full.

3. Petitioners under the Bankrupt Act are required to render a schedule of all their debts and liabilities, of every kind and description whatever, and also an inventory of all their estate, both real and personal, including all property and effects of which they are possessed, or in which they may have an interest, (though not in possession) in conformity with certain "Forms" prescribed in the "General Orders" of the Supreme Court of the United States. These schedules, verified by the oath of the petitioner before a District Court Judge, Register in Bankruptcy, or U S Commissioner, must accompany the petition and, when filed, is the commencement of proceedings in Bankruptcy. If it should be found out, pending the proceedings at any time before the bankrupt is discharged, that he has, by any shift or subterfuge, made a false or partial schedule, this would be evidence of fraud and would defeat his discharge.

4. When the petition is by a firm or copartnership, a full set of schedules of the respective estates of the members of the firm should also be added.

5. When the petition is filed, the case is immediately referred to a Register, who examines the petition and schedules annexed thereto, and if they are correct in form, makes a certificate to that effect, to be filed with the Clerk, then adjudges the debtor a Bankrupt and issues a warrant to the messenger to summon all the creditors named in the petitioner's schedules to meet at the Register's office, at a certain time and place, to prove their claims and elect one or more Assignees to take charge of the Bankrupt's estate.

6. A creditor can, however, prove his claim at any time previous to the last dividend, which will generally be six months subsequent to the adjudication of Bankruptcy.

7. No creditor has any standing in a Bankrupt Court until he proves his claim.

8. Creditors have no right to compel the Bankrupt to answer questions concerning the disposal of property by him acquired subsequent to filing a petition in Bankruptcy. "In other words, the date of the filing of the petition by or against a debtor, is the date at which, if adjudication of bankruptcy follows, the old order of things passes away and a new leaf is turned over." On this point decisions have been variant. The safe rule appears to be, that the applicant in Bankruptcy has a perfect right to claim whatever he has made after his application, by his personal exertions, but any profits he may have made, from investment or credit, may be liable to the claim of the receiver up to almost the period of his discharge.

9. The Bankrupt can apply to the Court at any time after the expiration of six months, and within one year from the adjudication, for the discharge in bankruptcy, and in case no assets come into the hands of the assignee, or no debts be proved against his estate, at any time after the expiration of sixty days.

10. As soon as an Assignee is elected or appointed, the Judge or Register will convey to him, by deed of assignment, all the bankrupt's property except what is exempted, viz: "Household and kitchen furniture and other necessaries not exceeding in value ($500) five hundred dollars; also his wearing apparel and that of his wife and children, and such other property not included in the foregoing as is exempt from levy and sale upon execution or other process, by the laws of the State in which the bankrupt resides, to an amount not exceeding that allowed by State exemption laws in force in 1864. A safe 'Counsellor' suggests, under this head, that the common impression that persons may become bankrupts and yet be allowed to retain their houses and lands, or other property of considerable value, is a great mistake. Under the Act, no honest Bankrupt in this State can have allotted to him, free from the operation of the Act, exceeding $700, besides the wearing apparel of himself and family. Bankrupts in this State are not entitled to homesteads under this Act.

11. It is the duty of the assignee, within twenty days after the assignment to him is made, to allot to the bankrupt such articles as are exempted, and file an inventory of the same with the value of each article so allotted, and creditors may make objections to the report of the Assignee at any time within twenty days after it is filed.

12. As to costs in bankruptcy proceedings, section 46 of the Bankrupt Act provides that the petitioner, before a warrant issues, shall deposit fifty dollars with the Register, or with the Clerk, to be delivered to the Register as a security for his fees. General order XXIX provides that the fees of the Register, Marshal and Clerk shall be prepaid or secured before they can be compelled to act. It is also provided by General order XXX that where the debtor has no means, and can prove the fact to the satisfaction of the Court, upon application, an order will be made requiring all the costs in the case to be paid out of the fifty dollars deposited with the Register. If, however, there are assets, but not enough to pay the Messenger after deducting the Bankrupt's exempted property, so that nothing comes into the hands of the Assignee, the fees will have to be paid by the Bankrupt; but if the Assignee receives assets, the fees of the Messenger will be paid by him before any dividend is made among creditors

13. Some suppose that the Register is entitled to $50 fee. The fees of the Register, Messenger, Clerk, and costs of publication of notices in Bankruptcy, are fixed by law, and if they demand higher fees, they are liable, as in other cases of malfeasance in office. In ordinary cases of Bankruptcy, the fees may amount to $100. In some cases more, in some less—the costs depending on the amount of labor and litigation involved in each case.

14. Differences of opinion among Attorneys have existed in this State, as to the limit which the Act makes, as to the time to make application in Bankruptcy. Some have supposed that no debtor will be permitted to apply for Bankruptcy after some early day in March, unless he is able to pay fifty per cent of his debts. We are assured that this is not the case. The law did not go into operation for the purposes for which it was enacted until June 1st, 1867. It gives twelve months from that time, to all honest debtors, whatever may be the extent of their indebtedness which they cannot pay, in which to present their applications. After the 1st of June next, every debtor must be able to pay fifty per cent of his indebtedness, in order to a successful application in bankruptcy, unless he first obtain the consent of a majority of his creditors.

TEST OATHS.

A test oath is an eye-sore to every free man—a blunder, if not a crime, in a free government. They are necessarily offensive, almost in all cases operate unjustly and unwisely, and are a stench in the nostrils of every true freeman. The native white members of the late Mongrel Convention were violently opposed, and very justly, too, to the imposition of a test oath during the late war, and they and all our people are indebted chiefly to the earnest and able efforts of Gov. Graham, for the defeat of the attempt to impose a test oath upon the people. Besides being an invasion of the civil rights of a freeman, who assumes no other responsibility than that of an ordinary citizen, the imposition of a test oath upon voters, especially, is one of the most fruitful evidences of demoralization and disregard of the solemnity of oaths.

The institution of a regular registration, and the imposition of a test oath upon all voters, will not only be a vexation, but a very offensive, feature of the new Government, if the infamous Constitution is ratified. We are glad that Gov. Graham has called public attention to it, in his late letter to the people of Rutherford. It is a measure which he has always opposed under all circumstances, as directly infringing the rights of a freeman and leading ultimately to still greater strides toward despotism.

The test oath imposed by the new Constitution is not only anti-Republican and abominable in a free State, but it is shamefully ridiculous and senseless. An oath to support a Constitution is admirable and proper in an officer of the government, but to bind a voter, upon oath, to support the laws of the State and Federal government, when his duty to both may require him to do all in his power to effect the repeal of an unwise and unconstitutional law, is absurd in the extreme.

REMEMBER!

That, if you vote for the infamous Constitution, you will vote

For TAXATION, that will amount to CONFISCATION;

For NEGRO EQUALITY in the SCHOOLS;

For NEGRO EQUALITY in the MILITIA;

For NEGRO SUPREMACY in many counties;

For NEGRO EQUALITY in all of them;

For an outrageous TEST-OATH for voters;

For licensed MISCEGENATION;

And, finally, for RUIN to every true interest of North Carolina!!

ALLEGHANY.—A correspondent writes us that a meeting of citizens of this county was held at Shiloh Church, some days since. The Sheriff of the county was requested to read the so-called Constitution to the crowd, but, before he got through, the people were so disgusted that they requested him to stop.

ALAS! THE POOR NEGRO.

Facts, which are being fast developed, prove, more conclusively than ever, that the Radicals, the professed friends of the negro, only appreciate him as he can be used to the advantage of the party. It is very manifest, too, that they think most of the negro, who is farthest off from them. For instance, a negro in the South, who has been trained by "rebels," and who has been civilized by the "slave driver's whip," is far more intelligent and much less barbarian, in the estimation of the Radicals, than are the negroes in Michigan, or Wisconsin, or Ohio, or even in Connecticut. A Northern negro is not worthy of suffrage, much less to sit on a jury or to hold an office of honor or profit, or to propose marriage to a white woman, but the most ignorant, half civilized negro reared on the rice patches or cotton fields of the South is, in the estimation of the Radicals, far more worthy of suffrage, and of the highest office, than the intelligent and most worthy "Southern rebels."

Congress, for instance, can see no mode of safe reconstruction, but by the enfranchisement of the negroes and placing them in civil, political and social equality with the whites, and, indeed, elevating them above the "rebel" whites. But who of them, except a few crazy fanatics like Greeley, and Stevens, and Sumner, and Wilson, and such like, can bear the presence of a negro in the Northern States at the ballot-box? What white working man of the North will admit that the negro is equal to him? What mechanic or tradesman will suffer negro competition in business? And yet the hated Southern slave holders must admit the equality of their former slaves or be ostracised, while Holden, a native scalawag, publishes daily an appeal to the "Working men of North Carolina" to make haste to admit the negro to full equality with themselves, and to esteem it an honor to stand side by side with the negro, as a true working man, as the readiest means of elevating the dignity of labor!! Was there ever such impudence in mortal man before? Our working men should resent the insult with a will!

The refusal of Ohio, New Jersey, Connecticut, Michigan, and indeed, of all the other Northern States where it has been recently tried, to grant negro suffrage, furnishes the most palpable evidence of the real loathing with which the Northern people regard the negro. The small number in the Northern States seems to be no excuse or apology for ganting them any additional privileges. Indeed, it is the purpose of the Radicals to force them upon the South, by giving the negro large advantages here, as an excuse to cajole and thus to force them out of the Northern States.

Facts are multiplying of the anxiety of the Northern people to get rid of the negro altogether. Thousands of the negroes of the entire country are becoming discontented, both North and South, and are imploring Congress to send them to Liberia. There is a growing feeling among the Northern whites to encourage the movement. Only the other day, the following resolutions were introduced in the Pennsylvania Legislature:

Whereas, A vast majority of the people of the United States believe that the white and black races cannot live together in this country on terms of political equality, and it is the duty of statesmen and philanthropists to recognize the existence of this sentiment; and,

Whereas, Several thousand freedmen in the Southern States have applied for passage to Liberia, in order to make it their permanent home, and a movement in that direction is becoming general among the blacks of the South; and

Whereas, The emigration of the negro from the country, and his colonization in his native land, will result in benefit to both races, and should be encouraged as the only practicable solution of the problem of the future of the black man; therefore,

Resolved, etc., That our Senators in Congress be instructed and our Representatives requested, to advocate, and, if possible, to procure, an appropriation of five millions of dollars to the Colonization Society, to be expended in facilitating the voluntary emigration of negroes to Liberia.

They were, of course, introduced by a Democrat. Radicals, eagerly looking to any political advantage they may gain by courting negro votes, will not openly advocate this, but the votes of Ohio, Michigan, and other States, on negro suffrage, show most conclusively, that the Radicals will not be behind any Democrat of the North, in promoting the quick removal of the blacks from the Northern States. This spirit will grow and spread. That remarkable book, "Nojoque," by Helper, is sowing its deadly seed all over the North. The poor negro will then find out, that the first, most constant, and only reliable friend he has, is his old master, upon whose premises he was born, and nurtured and cared for!

BEST JOKE OF THE SEASON.—The last "Holden Record" has the following:

"KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE.—That Daniel R. Goodloe is the only eligible candidate for Governor, and the only one that can take his seat, if elected."

Mr. Goodloe is a clever man, personally, but he is the nominee of a clique, and is a candidate without a party. The above bit of information well says, he can take his seat, "if elected." Who expects such a result? No Conservative can vote for Mr. Goodloe, for the reason that he advocates the equality of the negro with the white man—a favorite fancy with men of Mr. Goodloe's cast of mind. Moreover, he advocates the ratification of the infamous Constitution, proposed by the late mongrel Convention, which would bar every man from voting for him, who cannot honorably vote for the Constitution.

The "Holden Record" furthermore invites the interference of the military, and the dictation of Gen. Canby, in imitation of Gen. Meade in declaring Judge Irvin ineligible as a candidate for Governor of Georgia. It wants Gen. Canby to declare that, inasmuch as Mr. Ashe and Holden are both clearly ineligible, therefore Mr. Goodloe is the only suitable man to be voted for as Governor.—We presume that Gen. Canby, as in duty bound, will execute the Reconstruction Acts, and, therefore, will allow the people to vote for whom they please, without dictation from him.

THAT IMMIGRATION SCHEME.

The Yankee Radicals, in the late Mongrel Convention, had fitted up a very nice scheme to furnish a fat office for one of their number, in the person of an Immigration Agent to reside in New York, who was to be furnished with the means of inducing the foreign as well as Northern laboring men to settle in North Carolina. The negroes in the Convention discovered the game in time to enable them and their white skin sympathisers to defeat that particular project.

The filling the State with working emigrants from Europe or the North, is a favorite idea with the Yankee Radicals in the State, and, although defeated for the present by the Convention, the General Assembly, according to the new Constitution, is authorized to establish a Bureau of Statistics and Immigration, when it deems advisable.

The blacks of this State may, therefore, rest assured that any particular advantage which they may suppose themselves to have gained, through the intervention of their Northern allies, will be soon counterbalanced by the flood of laboring white emigrants which will be introduced into the State, if the new Constitution and the Yankee programme can prevail.

PHOTOGRAPH NO. 4—(By Macaulay.)

(Similis non idem.)

"Ken ye," said a shrewd Scotch Lord, who was asked his opinion of James I, "ken ye a John Ape? If I have Jacko by the collar, I can make him bite you, but if you have Jacko, you can make him bite me." Just such a creature was Barere. In the hands of the Girondists, he would have been eager to proscribe the Jacobins; he was just as ready, in the gripe of the Jacobins, to proscribe the Girondists. On the fidelity of such a man the Mountain could not, of course, reckon; but they valued their conquest as the very easy and not very delicate lover in Congreve valued the conquest of a prostitute of a different kind. Barere was like Chloe, false and common; but he was, like Chloe, constant while possessed; and they asked no more. They needed a service which he was perfectly competent to perform, and his talent, such as it was, was absolutely at the command of his owners for the time being. Nor had he excited any angry passion among those to whom he had hitherto been opposed. They felt no more hatred to him than they felt to the horses that dragged the cannon of the Duke of Brunswick. The horses had only done according to their kind, and would, if they fell into the hands of the French, drag with equal vigor and equal docility the guns of the Republic, and, therefore, ought not merely to be spared, but to be well fed and curried. So was it with Barere. He was of a nature so low, that it might be doubted whether he could properly be an object of the hostility of reasonable beings. He had not been an enemy; he was not now a friend. But he had been an annoyance, and would now be a help.

But though the heads of the Mountain pardoned this man, and admitted him into partnership with themselves, it was not without exacting pledges such as made it impossible for him, false and fickle as he was, ever again to find admission into the ranks which he had deserted. That was truly a terrible sacrament by which they admitted the apostate into their communion. They demanded of him that he should himself take the most prominent part in murdering his old friends. To refuse was as much as his life was worth.—But what is life worth, when it is only one long agony of remorse and shame? He undertook the task, and regaled Robespierre and some other Jacobins at a tavern."

BRIGHT AND BRIGHTER grow the skies! Holden and his infamous Constitution will be most signally repudiated by the honest white people of the State. Along with the disgusting pair, down to "the archives" of popular scorn, will go Daddy Cowles, Executioner Rodman, little Toddy R., Jay bird Jones, Greasy Sam, Carpet bag Menninger, nigger-hanging Jenkins, old Tribulation Ashley, Corporal Pool, Secesh Thomas, Owl Russell, Tourgee (said to be the meanest man in the State, at present, except about one,) puffy and fluffy Starbuck, Cannon, the spellist, and the rest of the detectable crew. And such a crew never before

"Scuttled a ship or cut a throat!"

CUMBERLAND—DR. CRAVEN.—The Conservatives of Fayetteville had a glorious rally last week. Dr. Craven, the Conservative nominee for Superintendent of Public Instruction, who was in town, in attendance on a Railroad meeting, being invited to address the people, delivered an able and impressive speech, patriotic in sentiment and convincing in argument. M. S. Robbins, Esq., of Randolph, who was also present, addressed the crowd, (says the News,) in a telling and scathing manner, in which Holden and his Constitution were severely handled. The meeting was also effectively addressed by Messrs. J. H. Myrover and J. C. Dobbin, Col. J. W. Hinsdale, Col. McKay, Capt. Robinson and Colonel McKethan. The ladies—Heaven bless them!—were present in numbers.

GEN. MEADE, by General Order, wages war upon the dead walls and trees upon which the fabulous K. K. K's. post their mysterious orders. At the same time, the same autocrat permits negro processions to march through Savannah with an effigy hanging upon a gallows, to indicate the fate of, and intended to intimidate, any negro who may be disposed to vote for the Conservative candidates, and there are in his District two thousand secret negro leagues, whose infernal plots are permitted to pass unnoticed!

DAVIE O. K.—A correspondent writing us from Davie county, under date of the 7th. inst., says:

"Our people are arousing. Many, who, before, were too careless to register, are now attending to that duty, to the neglect of everything else. Old men say they never witnessed such an uprising of the masses in their lives. Every man is a politician and discussing the merits of the miserable offspring of the late mongrel concern. Even some of the freedmen are finding fault with it.—Roll on the good work! Pile on the blows, thick and fast, and white men will sustain! You may set down Davie county all right!"

SHALL WHITE CHILDREN BE APPRENTICED TO NEGRO MASTERS!—That is one of the issues. The mongrel Convention refused to prohibit such a thing!

THE GOLDSBORO MASS MEETING.

GOLDSBORO', April 8, 1868.

Messrs. Editors:—The Conservative meeting here to-day was very large, and although several speakers, expected, did not arrive, the vast and enthusiastic assemblage was highly entertained and instructed by Messrs. Morrissey, Geo. V. Strong and Capt. Swift Galloway, of Brunswick.

The inconsistencies of the candidates of the Republican party, in this State, were laid bare by all the speakers, and Mr. Strong thoroughly dissected the "Kowles Konstitution," and showed up, in their true light, its outrageously obnoxious provisions. Old Wayne is all right! The County candidates are fully rousing the people.

The whites will do their duty here nobly, as will beyond doubt be shown on election-day, in the utter rout of "Konstitushun," Holden, Scalawagism, "Gin'ral" Brogden and "all sich."

OLD ORANGE FOREVER!

ORANGE Co., April 7, 1868.

A large and enthusiastic meeting was held at Flat River, on the 4th. inst., when, on motion of Dr. E. M. Holt, Mr. S. A. Durham was called to the chair, and on motion of Col. R. F. Webb, E. A. Speed was chosen Secretary.

Dr. E. M. Holt, through request of the chair, explained the object of the meeting in an earnest and impressive manner. The Doctor remarked that now was the time for all men to work with an energy and determination that will acknowledge no result but success, for the fruit of its labors; that we should not lay supinely on our backs and let the present contest go by default, as we had done. He did not know of a white man in his neighborhood that would vote contrary to his interest, and for that infamous equality, that was being attempted to be enforced by our Radical opponents in the late Convention. He was proud to state that he did not sign the Constitution, thinking he was acting out the feelings of his constituents.

Capt. A. Mangum next addressed the meeting. He thought it behooved every man to vote against the Constitution and the entire Radical ticket. That a code of laws so oppressive, and a ticket so objectionable, should be spurned by all honest and high-toned patriots of the State. That the arrangements of the Militia and Public Schools, having a tendency to bring about social equality, between the races, was odious for our's and for our children's future happiness. That it was intended to humiliate the white men of the State, by those who are our deadly enemies,—enemies to all but their individual interest, who care not a fig for laws of a repugnant character, so they could get the emoluments of office and the bribes of Northern capitalists, for whose interests these "carpet-bag" adventurers imposed the immense tax they propose to raise from a war-stricken and beggared people. That last Fall the election went by default, on account of the indifference of the whites; but now he was pleased to see all in earnest and alive to the dignity of their State and the laye they had for their offspring. He stated that, as he knew of no one that would vote for Mr. Guthrie, he would not comment on his virtues or his faults; but Guthrie was dead at this precinct and he would not exult over his misfortune, as that was contrary to the usages of a magnanimous people. But Mr. G. used the dagger himself that proved his ruin.

Col. R. F. Webb next, in his impressive manner, spoke. He stated that the object of the meeting was to organize a "Conservative Club;" that some time since that was thought expedient, but, from what he had lately seen of the feeling of the masses, he thought it would be superflous now; that he knew all the white men would go en masse for Conservatism; that they will form a club, on the day of election, to club, by ballot, the Ex. Provisional Governor from the Gubernatorial Chair of this State. He proposed that a Committee be appointed to scrutinize the management at the polls on election day—to see that all whites and blacks had justice done them.

Twelve of our most worthy citizens were chosen.

Col. Webb also proposed that some arrangements be made to feed the meeting, that was to be held here on the 11th. inst., as many of them would come from a distance, and their patriotic zeal must not be allowed to grow faint on account of empty stomachs.

Arrangements were made to give them a plenty.

On motion of Dr. Holt, a Committee of correspondence was appointed, to invite Hon. Josiah Turner, and other distinguished gentlemen, to address the people on the 11th. inst., at this place, on the subject of their duties and interest in the coming elections.

The Secretary was requested to send a copy of the proceedings of the meeting to the Weekly Sentinel for publication.

Yours, &c.

[Special Correspondence of the Balt. Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, April 8.

The Ole Bull concert, given here a few evenings since for the benefit of the Lincoln Monument, was a decided failure and did not pay expenses. The Rev. Byron Sunderland, having tendered his services to open the concert with prayer, prayed that the Almighty would forever deprive the Democratic party of political power (calling the party by name,) as that party had observed and respected the Constitution of the country only when they could make it subserve their selfish purposes, and always disregarded it when it stood in the way of their assaults upon the Union. The reverend gentleman appeared much relieved after delivering this appeal to the Throne of Grace and his audience—much disgusted.

It is an old saying that "it is an ill wind that does not blow some one good," and the Sergeant-at Arms of the Senate is fully realizing its truthfulness. The single item of telegraph to Gen. Rousseau in California to appear and testify on the impeachment trial puts sixteen hundred dollars of the people's money into Mr. Brown's pocket.—He is paid constructive mileage for summoning witnesses at the rate of ten cents per mile, and as many of the witnesses are called from a great distance, this officer will probably be the only one will who really make a "good thing" out of the impeachment of the President. But who cares, as the public debt is now twenty-six hundred millions, and the taxes so burthensome that the few thousad dollars fobbed by the Sergeant at-Arms of the Senate cannot possibly be felt by the people!

WE understand the high spirited ladies of Caswell have become interested in the canvass that is now going on. If there ever was a time, when the women ought to engage in politics, it is now. All that is dear to them is at stake. Women of Caswell! you are right.—Danville (Va.) Times.

THE TRIBUNE AND THE KU KLUX.—The New York Tribune is frightened, or rather affects to be frightened, by the Ku Klux, and devotes a column of editorial to denunciations of them. What a commentary upon negro civilization and enlightenment! The Tribune fears that its ignorant and superstitious suffragans in the South will be frightened out of—not their wits—but their radicalism, by Hydras, Gorgons and chimeras dire. The army and the navy must be put in motion to protect them from their superstition and fitichism. A noble mission, truly, for the soldiers of the United States.—Rich. Whig.

One of the most prominent of the justices of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, who is strongly opposed politically to Mr. Johnson, has stated recently, as his opinion, that legally Mr. Johnson must be acquitted, and that if convicted, it would be upon purely political grounds.—Buffalo Commercial.

[Upon purely partisan grounds.]

DIED:

On the 31st of January last, at the residence of her husband, near Mt. Airy, N. C., Mrs. Manon B., wife of James C. Norman, Esq., in the 30th year of her age.

LIFE INSURANCE.

ITS IMPORTANCE AND ITS BENEFITS ARE INCALCULABLE.

A COMPANY PAYING LOSSES PROMPTLY FOR A LONG SERIES OF YEARS, AND IS A stranger to litigation, is entitled to the confidence and patronage of our people. And such is the ÆTNA LIFE COMPANY.

In addition to the very large amount of paid since its organization, may be added the following policies settled in North Carolina to the 1st March, 1868, thus providing support and comfort to the widow and children in their bereavement and distress:

Policy No. 13,373	settled	$ 5,000
" " 18,088	"	5 000
" " 18,007	"	5 000
" " 24,092	"	3 000
" " 27,513	"	10,000
" " 28,650	"	5 000
" " 41,974	"	2,500
" " 35,082	"	10,000
Total		$ 45 500.00

The value of all Insurance, either against fire or life, is to know you are investing in a Company of responsibility, and prompt action in discharging all just demands against it. Such is the ÆTNA, having now:

ASSETS, $8,000,000. DIVISIBLE SURPLUS $1,884,768,31.

No. POLICIES 48,000. DIVIDENDS, 50 per cent.

Fifty per cent Dividend is now being returned to all who have paid two premiums, and the Dividends will be given ANNUALLY to all such hereafter, who are insured upon the Life plan.

The Ætna issues policies upon ages from 14 to 69.

The Ætna will give a policy upon which 10 payments may be paid and nothing more will be required, though the party might live thirty or forty years, and after the payment of ten years he is entitled to the dividends of the Company so long as life continues.

The Ætna issues 10 years Endowment Policies to be paid at death or the specified time.

The Ætna gives a general permit to travel or reside in any part of the United States without any extra charge, and in all respects gives as many advantages to the insured as any other first-class Company.

Grand Conservative Mass Meeting at Henderson, on Friday, 17th. of April.

All Conservatives, and others, who feel an interest in the welfare of our noble old commonwealth, and who desire to co-operate in a united effort to defeat Radicalism and vindicate the honor, integrity and conservatism of North Carolina, are respectfully and earnestly solicited to attend a Mass Meeting and Barbecue at Henderson, on Friday, 17th. of April. Speakers of great ability and popularity will deliver addresses on the vital issues of the day. Come, Conservatives, one and all!

THE REGISTRATION lists will remain open for two days longer. REGISTER! REGISTER! The white man, who neglects this duty, commits a great crime.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—See Court notices from Wake County.

Rio and old Government Java Coffees, Raisins, Yeast Powders, Family Flour in Sacks, &c.: Douglas Bell.

Fifty Hhds. New Crop Cardenas Molasses: Upchurch & Dodd, Market Square.

See notice to Consumers of Gas: C. B. Root, President Raleigh Gas Company.

REGISTRATION on yesterday footed up as follows: Whites 49, Blacks 29. This makes the result, for three days: Whites 123, Blacks 80.

REGISTRATION AT MORRISVILLE.—Owing to the inclemency of the weather, there were no applications for registry, at Morrisville, on Tuesday. On Wednesday, however, the white men came up manfully. Twenty-two whites and one negro were registered—mostly from the precincts of Laws' and Oak Grove. All of these, except the negro and one white man, (so called,) will vote against the infamous Constitution.

REGISTRATION in Newbern for two days: Whites 130, Negroes 169.

NICE BREAD.—If there be any one thing in dietetics more necessary and more essential to health than another, it is good bread. Our friends, Bradley & Christophers, Fayetteville Street, have just commenced furnishing an article that is really superior to anything in the line ever furnished from a Bakery in this city before. It is light, white and wholesome, and is prepared in various forms,—loaf, rolls, twist and buns. It may be obtained from Messrs. Bradley & Christophers at all hours of the day, but will always be on hand, hot and fresh, late in the afternoon. This is emphatically one of the improvements, which we are pleased to record and commend.

THE LADIES of the Smithville Memorial Association of Cumberland county have purchased a beautiful iron fence for the Confederate Cemetery at that place. The Cemetery contains 55 bodies, and is situated upon the third line of breastworks upon the battle-field, and has been named, by the ladies, "Chicora Cemetery."

COOL.—Fraps has Boston Ice,—plenty of it,—in mammoth blocks, pure, clear, refreshing. He sells it at five cents per lb., or at four cents, when purchased by the quantity.

THANKS to A. Munroe, Esq., of Kinston, for a Club of sixteen subscribers to the Sentinel. This is the third or fourth Club that our active and excellent friend has sent us within a few weeks.

INTIMIDATION OF VOTERS.

The only instances of threats and intimidation that we hear of are employed by the white and black Radicals towards colored men, who dare to exercise the privilege of thinking and voting for themselves. There are many negroes who would refuse to follow the bidding of the treasonable secret Leagues and their arrogant self-constituted masters, if they were not kept in a state of fear by menaces, public and private. We hope that all such cases will be promptly reported. We tell all colored men, who are thus threatened, to act as their convictions of right and duty dictate. They will be sustained by their friends.

Thomas Green, of Hillsboro, a worthy and sensible colored man, and the only one who, at the last election, voted the Conservative ticket, in that town, has been the object, ever since, of constant menace and persecution at the hands of black and white Radicals. On Wednesday, the following profane and incendiary "warning" was conspicuously posted in Hillsboro, and is doubtless the emanation of a negro secret League:

"NOTICE FOR THOMAS GREEN.

A d—n Concervitive sun of a b—, we understood you ware out with Concervative lys, but d—n your time if you don't look out you will catch h—l shure. We herd you cum verry near catching it in Sharlot and if you dont mind you will catch it in Hills Boro shure enought and that Right. If your d—n Concervative frends can protect you, you had better stick near to them in that hour for great will be your Desteruy. This is the last of our example. The next time will tell you your will on good behavier.

Postscript—You mind me of the sun of Esaw and who sold his birth right for one meal of meat and so now you have sold your wife and children and yourself for a drink of Liquors and have come to be a Conservative boot licker.

Thom, I would not give a d—n for your Back in a few days, you Conservative sun of a b—."

We have advised Thomas, who handed us a copy of this shameful paper, to submit it to the Military authorities. They are charged by Gen. Canby with such matters, and, we presume, will do their duty in the premises.

Let Thomas, and all similarly situated, do what they think right, without fear. The cowardly villains, who make such threats as the above, will yet be ferreted out.

P. S. Since the above was written, we learn that Col. Bomford, the Post Commander, and Col. Churr, of the Bureau, have both very promptly acted in the foregoing case. Steps were taken by them, at once, and commendably, which will lead, we hope, to the detection and punishment of the guilty parties concerned in this nefarious menace, and to Thos. Green a ample protection.

NEGRO MASONIC LODGE.—We learn that, under a dispensation granted from the Grand Lodge of New York, a negro Masonic Lodge has been organized in this City. We do not belong to the ancient and honorable Masonic fraternity, and, therefore, know nothing of its system of government. What jurisdiction has the New York Grand Lodge in North Carolina? Is it the purpose to Africanize Masonry in the South, as well as everything else? Will not the Masons be prompt to resent this impudent intrusion?

CAN'T DODGE.—Turner, of Harnett, tries hard to evade the damning charge that he received over $100 mileage for coming only 30 or 40 miles to the Mongrel Convention. He says that he had a right, under the law, to go via Fayetteville and Wilmington.—But did he so go? No, he came the thirty or forty miles, in his own buggy, to Raleigh, and charged for five hundred and twenty-four miles, at 20 cents a mile! Hood, the negro preacher from Cumberland, did the same thing. Of such is—Radicalism!

A FRIEND writes us from Wilmington that registration, as it is being conducted in that county, is worse than a farce. Negroes, notoriously under age, are allowed to register. He adds: "To-day (7th) the negroes are having everything their own way. The whites will rally to-morrow and next day."

THE GREAT MEETING IN WILMINGTON.—The Journal gives a glowing account of the glorious Conservative rally in Wilmington. The speech of Col. Cowan is especially lauded as an effort of great eloquence and power. We have not a doubt of it. There are few more gifted and gallant champions of the RIGHT than Robert H. Cowan.

WE HEARD several negroes talking on the street, a day or two ago, when one remarked, "Well I have heard of better times coming, but I can't see it yet. It is all I can do to get along." A young lad replied, "Cheer up, we shall have better times when we ratify the Constitution." We should like to see how this can be done! This is what the white Radicals have told them, but we defy any of them to demonstrate it.

GOOD SPIRIT IN GREENE.—We learn that Col. Kenan and Col. Humphrey addressed the people of Greene, at Snow Hill, on Saturday last, with telling effect. We hope that Greene will give a good account of herself in the coming election.

CONSTITUTIONS.—We have frequent applications for copies of the new Constitution. The Executive Committee had a large number printed, and they have all been sent to the several Counties. We have none on hand.

BADLY SOLD.—We learn that as the X. P. G. was getting off the train on yesterday, an urchin, who was selling the "Holden Record," either not knowing him, or not having the fear of that august individual before his eyes, offered to sell him a copy! He didn't buy.

THE X. P. G. has returned to Raleigh, leaving his appointments in the Western counties to take care of themselves.

THANKS to W. J. Ellis, of Fulton, Davie county, for a club of ten subscribers to the Sentinel.

WHICH IS BETTER, a system of State government, devised by Gaston, Macon, Daniel, Morehead, and other North Carolina patriots, or a system devised by New England adventurers, based upon Yankee notions and prejudices, adapted to New England wants, and adopted by scallawags and negroes!

From the New York World.

THE REAL REACTION.

Who any longer doubts the setting of the tide? Let him look to Connecticut! When one short month ago the wave first broke in angry thunder on the granite ledge of New Hampshire, the Radical office-holders and contractors and impeachers affected to mistake its voice of doom for a casual surge of the political sea. This in their public prints they did. But to the private haunts of those who shape their party end another and a very different spirit ruled. There were dismay, anxiety, and a fanatic desperation prompting to any measures by which the rising tide might haply be stayed ere its avenging billows should sweep over and sweep away the fabric of moral despotism and political corruption called Government of the Union by the Rump of a Congress.—By universal consent it was felt that the elections of April in Connecticut would be the crucial test of the power of this despotism and this corruption to check the Real Reaction of the American people to American principles. On those elections all the resources of the most opulent party this country has ever seen were lavished. Money was poured into Connecticut from all the great centres of Radical power. The High Court of Impeachment sate in judgment upon every office-holder in the sturdy little State, bidding him tremble for his head, for the eye of Wade, the coming man, was upon him. And as if all this were not enough, the "General of the Armies," as the Tribune with an insolent parade of military power pompously describes him, was leashed and then let loose upon the field to threaten with the terrors of the sword and to palsy with the prestige of the great name won for him by the sacrifice of thousands of heroic lives. All that Radicalism could do—more than all that Americans bred in the traditions of American freedom had ever dreamed an American party would dare to attempt—was done. And now the answer comes.

The wave that rose in New Hampshire, sweeps in victory over Connecticut. The voice of the people that daunted these bloated tyrants of an hour in March, damns them in April. The cohorts that came down to the battle gleaming in purple and gold, in the purple of place and the gold of corruption, where are they to-day?

"The might of the Gentile, unsmote by the sword

To Connecticut, which speaks to-day, the West will answer with Wisconsin to-morrow. The "Real Reaction" has set in; and in its triumphant and avenging progress neither banded wealth, nor the glamour of great names prostituted to petty ends, nor any living thing, shall avail to stay the coming of the people once more to enjoy their own.

GOOD FRIDAY AND EASTER.—This is "good Friday,"—a day sacred in the Christian calendar, as commemorative of the Crucifixion of our Savior. There will be divine service and a sermon in Christ Church, at the usual hour of service, this morning.

Apropos to Easter,—the anniversary of the Resurrection—we find, in an exchange, the following account of a singular custom, which attends it:

"In almost all Christian countries the custom still prevails of eggs being given as a present at Easter time. In Germany they are generally hid by the older people in the garden, under the young gooseberry bushes and other early plants, when they are looked for by bevies of little children, and great is the joy at finding one of peculiar richness in ornament, for they are all decked in gay colors and covered with gold and silver devices. In France, the eggs, although still so called, have degenerated into costly boxes of bon-bons or even more expensive presents, which are exchanged by friends according to the French proverb, that 'little presents keep up friendship.' In Russia alone they have maintained their sacred character, and are given with the words, 'Christ is arisen!' Everybody, at home or abroad, has a supply of Easter eggs about him; every passer by is thus accosted, and the two eggs are knocked against each other. The owner of the harder one, which has succeeded in breaking the other, carries off both. In spite of this association with the season of Easter and the sacred character given to the custom by the Greek church, these eggs originated in the far East, and are of heathen nature. In the Orient the egg is well known to be the symbol of the primitive state of things, of the creation which developed the germ of all things. Now there the new year begins still, as it has ever done, with the Spring equinoxes, and the festive occasion is celebrated by the giving away of eggs. At this period, when the year and all nature begin anew, gilt and gaily painted eggs are sent from friend to friend as tokens of the renewal of all things. From there the custom found its way to the western part of Europe, where for centuries the year also began with the opening of Spring, and the egg remained an appropriate symbol. Since the time when Charles IX of France first fixed the beginning of the year upon the first of January, the custom has gradually lost its ancient signification, but Easter eggs are still well known in all parts of the world."

We learn that at the public speaking at Newport, on Saturday last, old Congleton, the Radical-nigger candidate for the Commons, in Carteret, was charged with stealing a hog, some years ago, in Onslow Co., and had to leave that county in consequence thereof. The charge was so well sustained that the old rascal had reluctantly to acknowledge the fact.

We also learn that it was charged upon Moore, the nigger candidate for the Senate in that county, that he had stolen a pistol from J. Henry Davis, Conservative candidate for the Commons, and that he was present and did not deny the fact.

CONNECTICUT ON GRANT.—"Should the Republicans achieve success in Connecticut," said the excellent T. W. only yesterday, "it must be ascribed to the potency of Grant's name." By all means. And now the Republicans having "achieved" a most satisfactory thrashing in Connecticut, that must be ascribed to the impotency of "Grant's name." Grant, by the Tribune, informs us on Friday that the "loyal nation demands the conviction of the President." Connecticut on Monday responds that the "loyal nation" declines to be bullied out of its common sense by Gen. Grant or by the Tribune, or by the Tribune using Gen. Grant, or by Gen. Grant using the Tribune.—New York World.

WHICH IS BETTER, the old Constitution of our fathers, under which we have lived and prospered, or the new Constitution, which obliterates all the ancient and honored landmarks, and provides for a TAXATION, which will crush the people to powder, and which is designed to have the effect of transferring the property of our people into the hands of NORTHERN SPECULATORS!

THE VOTE upon the new Constitution will be taken the 21st., 22nd, and 23d. of April. Be sure and VOTE AGAINST IT.

From the National Intelligencer.

GENERAL GRANT'S DICTATORSHIP.

Several days have elapsed since the New York Tribune published in an unusually conspicuous manner a statement that General Grant had "announced it as his opinion that the only hope for the peace of the country is the success of the pending impeachment trial." The Tribune, probably on the same authority, says: "He (Grant) feels that the national security demands the removal of the President," and, as if to hold in terrorem over the Senate the potent and menacing sword of "the General of our armies," the Tribune adds: "When the General of our armies entertains this conviction, there is no room for doubt as to the duty of the Senate."

That the Tribune had authority for this statement is to be inferred from the unusual prominence given to it in its columns. The fact that this statement has not been denied by General Grant is an evidence that the Tribune spoke by authority, and that the Tribune's comments and deductions are approved by "the General of our armies," in whose name they are uttered. General Grant thus allows himself to be placed in a new attitude, not only of most flagrant insubordination to his superior military officer—the President of the United States—but of dictatorial menace to the Senate of the United States; that because he has said it the Senators must so decide.

Even in these days of demoralization, when those occupying high and honorable positions permit themselves to become subservient tools of an ignoble fashion of reckless revolutionary conspirators, it is almost incredible that "the General of our armies" should have been lured by their blandishments to consent to abase himself to such a depth of moral degradation. Yet General Grant has not denied the imputation. The cloak of reticence will not suffice to cover this authoritative announcement of his opinions and "feelings." He must deny it now, or forever after hold his peace, and be adjudged upon the record that he allows the Tribune to make for him.

The idea of menacing the Senate of the United States in this manner is most monstrous. The revolution is not yet complete. "The General of our armies" is not yet dictator. He has not yet authority—and, thank God, not yet the power—to say, under the menace of the sword, to the Senate of the United States, "Do this!" and it shall be done. The Senator who would yield to such a menace from an insubordinate inferior military officer, or from a military officer of any grade, is unworthy of the name of an American citizen. The Senator who would be influenced by such a threat from "the General of our armies," or from any one whatever, invokes the scorn and contumely of his constituents and of the whole country.

The failure of General Grant to deny emphatically and in his own name this monstrous charge of the New York Tribune, must be taken as evidence of his endorsement of the whole statement, and of the menaces to the Senate. If he had drawn his sword and marched his cohorts to the doors of the Senate to compel them, vi et armis, to obey his mandates, it would be scarcely worse.

The comments of the presses that have hitherto sustained General Grant are indicative of the storm of popular indignation that must surely be invoked by such a revolutionary and dictatorial announcement.

The New York Times (Rad) says:

"Such a declaration, put forward as the opinion of General Grant in his military capacity—as the opinion of the 'General of our armies,' with the direct and avowed purpose of dictating the verdict of the Senate, (and this is the form which the Tribune gives it)—would be equivalent to the issue of a military order. General Grant might as well march his troops to the door of the Senate at once, and order them to convict and 'remove' the President, as to make use indirectly of his military power for the accomplishment of the same object."

The New York Citizen (hitherto a strong advocate of Grant) says:

"On behalf of General Grant, we hope and believe there is no syllable of truth in the Tribune's statement. And on behalf of the American people, we most earnestly pray, if this atrocious averment shall prove true, that President Johnson may have the firmness to exercise his unquestionable prerogative—even if it be the last act of his official life—by revoking General Grant's commission, and ordering the name of this great mutineer to be stricken from the muster rolls of our army. If this be true, General Grant is already assuming the part of Cromwell; and it is time for all men who value our free system of government to prepare themselves for resistance to this threat of military usurpation. Never could men die better than facing odds in such a quarrel. But we utterly refuse to believe at present, and can never be brought to believe, without positive evidence, that General Grant can have so far forgotten his oath and duty, both as a soldier and citizen. The statement looks to us like a reckless electioneering canard, designed to influence the contest in Connecticut. But on what melancholy days must we have fallen, when such a canard as this can be considered popular, or likely to secure more votes to the party putting it forward."

THEN.

"WHO WILL PLOT FOR THE HEADS OF ABE LINCOLN AND GEN. SCOTT?"
—W. W. Holden, June 5th, 1861.

NOW.

"Our beloved State will once more put on the garments of prosperity; and our people will be contented and happy through the long ages reserved for the existence of the government which Washington established, and which LINCOLN labored and died to preserve!

Fraternally yours,
W. W. HOLDEN, President.
JAS. H. HARRIS, 1st Vice Pres.
A. H. JONES, 2nd Vice Pres.
C. W. HOLDEN, Sec'y."

(Closing sentence of the address to the U. L. A. in N. B. January, 31, 1868.)

WHICH IS BETTER, a Government administered by intelligent and virtuous native WHITE MEN, or a Government administered by needy squatters, ignorant Africans and impudent allies of mixed blood!

THE GREAT and paramount issue is: SHALL NEGROES or WHITE MEN RULE NORTH CAROLINA? All other issues are secondary and subordinate, and should be kept so.

THE IMPEACHMENT.

WASHINGTON, April 9, M.

On the assembling of the Court, after the reading of the Journal Butler called other witnesses—among them Blodgett who testified regarding his removal from the Postmastership at Augusta. He knew nothing beyond the fact that he had been suspended.

Butler asked for a certificate that no reasons had been given for Blodgett's suspension.

The Defence made the point that Blodgett's case was outside of the charges made against the President.

At a quarter to 1 o'clock, Judge Curtis commenced his argument.

[SPECIAL TO THE SENTINEL.]

Immense Conservative Mass Meeting at Charlotte!

2,000 WHITE MEN IN COUNCIL!

GREAT ENTHUSIASM AND ZEAL PERVADING THE ASSEMBLED MULTITUDE!

Large Concourse of Ladies in Attendance!

CHARLOTTE, April 9, P. M.

Col. H. C. Jones, Jr., President of the meeting, introduced Mr. W. H. Bailey, who for two hours exposed the wicked purposes of the Radicals and their worse than wicked purposes against the State.

Col. F. E. Shober was then introduced, and for an hour and a half he enchained the audience with a powerful argument against the Radical Constitution and their purposes against the country.

Judge Osborne was then introduced, who for an hour poured forth a strain of eloquent indignation and argument, as he only can do.

The torch-light procession to-night was the largest demonstration of the kind ever seen in Western N. C. Hundreds of white men were in ranks—the transparencies well gotten up, with appropriate mottoes, dignified and respectful, yet indicative of the determination that this must be a white man's Government. Some were of an amusing tendency, with a representation of Holden riding the negro and spurring on to the Gubernatorial chair, and President Cowles on his way to Congress, with a bale of snake-root on his back. Another represented the Yankee member of this County to the Convention, on his return trip from New Jersey, in war times, with a carpet-bag full of brass buttons for Confederate soldiers.

Such enthusiasm was never before displayed in this State, as the procession moved along, with an ex-Confederate band of music playing national airs, under the stars and stripes of our country, with the ladies, in large numbers, on the side-walks, from windows and balconies, viewing the scene.

All admit the mass meeting to be a success, and the Radicals look dispirited and admit their chances in this county to be hopeless.

Speaking is now going on in the Public Square. Western North Carolina calls on the white men of the East to rally to our common mother, and rescue her from impending degradation.

G.

CONGRESS—IMPEACHMENT.

WASHINGTON, April 9, P. M.

No business before the impeachment.

Mr. W. W. Wood, of Alabama, who had been in the Union army, testified regarding Mr. Johnson refusing him office, because he was in favor of Congress.

Defence opened. Mr. Curtis spoke until nearly 4 o'clock, when, at his request, the Hall being larger than he was accustomed to, the Court adjourned, without division.

The Senate went into Executive Session and adjourned.

FROM WASHINGTON—JUDGE CURTIS' ARGUMENT—HOLDEN.

WASHINGTON, April 9, P. M.

Judge Curtis was listened to throughout with marked attention, especially by the members of the Court. Some of his points were startling. He left it with the Senators whether they were acting in a Legislative or Judicial capacity.

The substance of the first article, on which the eight charges were based, was that the removal of Stanton and the appointment of Thomas was intended to be a violation of the tenure of office act and the Constitution. He denied both propositions, and, among other authorities, he quoted statements of members of the Conference Committee.

Schenck, in making the report to the House, used the words "terms of service." It might as well be said that a King completed the term of his predecessor, who had died, as to say that Mr. Johnson was serving out Lincoln's term.

He proceeded, showing that the heads of departments were the voice and hands of the President.

He argued that the heads of departments did not, in fact could not constitutionally come under the Tenure of Office bill—that these exceptions were understood by the Senators, and he noticed the absurdity of charging the President with high crimes and misdemeanors for acting in accordance with the publicly expressed views of Senators.

The argument that the President's action was in accordance with precedents and the Constitution, was too compact in its elaboration for abbreviation.

Recapitulating his arguments, to prove that the President could not be impeached for an act designed to procure a Judicial decision he quoted Butler to show that the Managers admitted this view, who said the removal, in itself, was perhaps not an impeachable offence, if made with that motive, and not accompanied with a defiant message to the Senate.

Judge Carter said it was a matter of taste how they should be notified.

The Congressional Executive Committee have declined taking steps to induce Holden to withdraw from the North Carolina Gubernatorial race. The alleged cause of non-action is the absence of many members.

Gen Sherman listened to Curtis' speech.

They say that Bayne, the negro of the Virginia delegation, who visited Gen. Grant, threatened that he would get no votes in Virginia, unless he adopted a certain policy.

Grant rung for an orderly, through whom Bayne was informed that Grant had given him all the time he had to spare.

Grant has issued no orders regarding the "Klux."

VIRGINIA CONVENTION.

RICHMOND, April 9, P. M.

Another resolution to invite Sergeant Bates was defeated.

A resolution to adjourn on the 17th. adopted. Bates was among the spectators to-day.

Gen. Canby's Election Order.

HEADQUARTERS SECOND MILITARY DIST.,
Charleston, S. C., March 28, 1868.

GENERAL ORDERS,
NO. 45.

The Constitutional Convention of the State of North Carolina, in conformity with the Act of Congress of March 23, 1867, supplementary to the Act of March 2, 1867, "to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," having framed a Constitution and civil government according to the provisions of the aforecited laws; and having by an ordinance adopted on the 17th day of March, 1868, provided that the said Constitution shall be submitted "for ratification to the persons registered under the provisions of this Act [March 23, 1867, Section 4] at an election to be conducted by the officers appointed or to be appointed by the Commanding General as hereinbefore provided, and to be held after the expiration of thirty days after the notice thereof to be given by the said Convention;" and having further provided, by the aforesaid ordinance, that at the same time an election shall be held for Senators and Representatives in the General Assembly, and for all State and County officers who are to be elected by the people under this Constitution, and further, that in each Congressional District of the State an election shall be held for a member of the House of Representatives of the United States Congress, It is ordered:

First. That an election be held in the State of North Carolina, commencing on Tuesday, the 21st day of April, and ending on Thursday the 23d day of April, 1868, at which all registered voters of said State may vote "For Constitution" or "Against Constitution," and also on the same ballot for the State and County officers and for members of the United States House of Representatives, as specified in the before cited ordinance.

Second. It shall be the duty of the Boards of Registration in North Carolina, commencing fourteen days prior to the election herein ordered, and giving reasonable public notice of the time and place thereof, to revise for a period of five days, the registration lists; and upon being satisfied that any person not entitled thereto has been registered, to strike the name of such person from the lists, and such persons shall not be entitled to vote. The Boards of Registration shall also, during the same period, add to such lists the names of all persons who at that time possess the qualifications required by said Acts, who have not already been registered.

Third. In deciding who are to be stricken from or added to the registration lists, the Boards will be guided by the law of March 2, 1867 and the laws supplementary thereto, and their attention is specially directed to the supplementary Act of July 19, 1867.

Fourth. Any duly registered voter of this State who may have removed from the County in which he was registered, shall be entitled to vote in the County to which he has removed and has resided for the ten days next preceding this election, upon presentation of a certificate of registration from the County in which he was originally registered, or upon his affidavit or other satisfactory evidence that he was so registered, and that he has not voted at this election. It shall be the duty of the Registrars, upon the application of any duly registered voter who has removed or is about to remove from the precinct in which he was originally registered, to furnish him with a certificate that he was so registered, and to note the fact in the registration books of the precinct. In default of the certificate, the affidavit of the voter must set forth the County and precinct in which he was originally registered and the length of time he has resided in the County in which he desires to vote. In doubtful cases, the Registrars or Inspectors of election shall require such additional evidence as may be necessary to satisfy them that the applicant is legally entitled to vote. Blank forms for the certificates and for the affidavits herein required, will be furnished the Registrars and the inspectors of election, and when used will be attached to the ballots cast by such voters, and will be transmitted to District Headquarters with the returns required by law.

Fifth. The said election will be held in each County at such places as may hereafter be designated, under the superintendence of the boards of Registration as provided by law, and in accordance with instructions hereafter to be given to said Boards in conformity with the Acts of Congress and as far as may be with the laws of North Carolina.

Sixth. The polls shall be opened at such voting places at six o'clock in the forenoon, and closed at six o'clock in the afternoon of each day, and shall be kept open during these hours without intermission or adjournment.

Seventh. All Judges and Clerks employed in conducting said election shall, before commencing to hold the same, be sworn to the faithful performance of their duties, and shall also take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed by law for officers of the United States.

Eighth. No member of the Board of Registration, who is a candidate for election to any office to be filled at this election, shall serve as a Judge or Inspector of Election in any precinct which he seeks to represent.

Ninth. The Sheriff and other peace officers of each County are required to be present during the whole time that the polls are kept open, and until the election is completed; and will be made responsible that there shall be no interference with Judges of Election, or other interruption of good order. If there should be more than one polling place in any County, the Sheriff of the County is empowered and directed to make such assignments of his deputies, and other peace officers to the other polling places as may in his judgment best subserve the purposes of quiet and order; and he is further required to report these arrangements in advance to the Commander of the Military Post in which his County is situated.

Tenth. Violence, or threats of violence, or of discharge from employment, or other oppressive means to prevent any person from registering or exercising his right of voting, is positively prohibited; and any such attempts will be reported by the Registrars or Judges of Elections, to the Post Commander, and will cause the arrest and trial of the offenders by military authority. The exhibition or carrying of deadly weapons in violation of General Orders No. 10, of 1867, at or in the vicinity of any polling places during the election herein ordered, will be regarded and treated as an additional offence.

Eleventh. All bar rooms, saloons, and other places for the sale of liquors by retail, will be closed from six o'clock of the evening of the 20th of April, until six o'clock of the morning of the 24th of April, 1868, and during this time the sale of all intoxicating liquors at or near any polling place is prohibited. The police officers of cities and towns, and the Sheriffs and other peace officers of Counties, will be held responsible for the strict enforcement of this prohibition, and will promptly arrest and hold for trial all persons who may transgress it.

Twelfth. Military interference with elections, "unless it shall be necessary to repel the armed enemies of the United States, or to keep the peace at the polls," is prohibited by the Act of Congress approved February 25, 1865, and no soldiers will be allowed to appear at any polling place, unless as citizens of the State they are qualified and are registered as voters, and then only for the purpose of voting; but the Commanders of Posts will keep their troops well in hand on the days of election, and will be prepared to act promptly if the civil authorities are unable to preserve the peace.

Thirteenth. The returns required by law to be made to the Commander of the District of the results of this election, will be rendered by the Boards of Registration of the several Registration precincts through the Commanders of the Military Posts in which their precincts are situated, and in accordance with the detailed instructions hereafter to be given.

Fourteenth. The State officers to be voted for at this election are:

NEW ARRANGEMENT

FOR THE

SENTINEL.

Published in the City of Raleigh, N. C.,

Daily, Semi Weekly and Weekly.

William E. Pell,
Seaton Gales, } Editors.

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st. DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative—advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of equal States:

Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;

The supremacy of the civil over the military, in time of peace:

The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution:

The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class:

Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.—The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

Terms:

Daily Sentinel, for one year,		$8 00
" "	six months,	4 00
" "	three months	2 00
Semi-Weekly Sentinel, for one year,		4 00
" "	six months,	2 00
" "	three months,	1 00
Weekly "	for one year,	2 00
" "	six months,	1 00

All subscriptions strictly cash in advance.

As an advertising medium, the SENTINEL is equal to any in the State. Terms moderate.

We ask every Conservative in the State to become our Agent to extend the circulation of the SENTINEL. The events of 1868 will be exciting and important. The WEEKLY SENTINEL should be in the hands of the great body of the people—The terms are now so low that every one will be able to pay for it—
